Big Girl Small by DeWoskin

Hiding out in a seedy motel room, 3-foot-9-inch Judy Lohden narrates what transpired when she transferred to a performing-arts high school her junior year.

In Zanesville by Beard (F Beard)

Set in the 1970's, our nameless heroine's family consists of a harried, brash, mother; a temperamental big sister; and a practically nonexistent little brother struggles financially while barely coping with her father's pathetic drunkenness.

The Lover's Dictionary by Levithan (F Levithan)

Each word, from aberrant to zenith, defines the language of love, while adding to the reader's knowledge and understanding of the male lovers' partnership. Interestingly, each definition is told from the point of view and in the first-person voice of only one of the partners.

The New Kids: Big Dreams and Brave Journeys at a High School for Immigrant Teens by Hauser

For a single school year, freelance writer Hauser tracked the staff and students at the International High School at Prospect Heights in Brooklyn, whose particular mission is to serve "recent immigrants and new English-language learners."

The Night Circus by Morgenstern (F Morgenstern)

The circus arrives without warning. No announcements precede it. It is simply there, when yesterday it was not. Within the black-and-white striped canvas tents is an utterly unique experience full of breathtaking amazements.

Ready Player One by Cline (F Cline)

In the near future, scarce fossil fuels have ended America's era of prosperity, sent small-town Americans to precarious vertical trailer parks at urban fringes, and the entire population into the OASIS, an immersive virtual reality, for education and escape.

Robocalypse: A Novel by Wilson (SF Wilson)

In the not-too-distant future, the first true artificial intelligence awakens and decides that humanity's dominion over the planet has ended and the time of the machine has begun. Archos, unlike SkyNet in the Terminator movies, prefers more mundane but creepier methods.

Salvage the Bones by Ward (F Ward)

A hurricane is building over the Gulf of Mexico, threatening the coastal town of Bois Sauvage, Mississippi. Esch and her three brothers are stocking food, but there isn't much to save. Lately, Esch can't keep down what food she gets; she's fourteen and pregnant.

The Scrapbook of Frankie Pratt: A Novel in Pictures by Preston (F Preston)

Small-town girl Frankie wants to get out of New Hampshire, get an education, and become a writer. She becomes a class of 1924 student at Vassar, finds a job in New York, publishes a short story in Collier's, and then makes her way to Paris.

The Talk-Funny Girl by Merullo

In one of the poorest parts of rural New Hampshire, teenage girls have been disappearing, snatched from back country roads, never to be seen alive again. For seventeen-year-old Marjorie Richards, the fear raised by these abductions is the backdrop to what she lives with her own home, every day.
