Inspiration of Time

Presented by Charles Breitweiser,
Author & Motivational Speaker

Sunday, February 25
2:00pm

At 17 years old, the unthinkable happened to Charles Breitweiser. A serious car accident left him in a coma for six months, and he endured years of physical therapy to re-learn how to walk, talk, and live a normal life. To get through these painful times, Mr. Breitweiser turned to poetry, and he developed a philosophy of endurance and a positive attitude by learning to disregard his losses and embrace his gains.

Mr. Breitweiser will share his story and poetry from his book Inspiration of Time.

Copies of the book will be available to purchase after the presentation.
