Roof Leaks/Repairs

Mrs. Cohen announced a leak was found by the new non-fiction section.
Operational Audit

Mrs. Cohen announced she was informed the audit should be completed by the end of the month and a report would be generated afterwards. Mr. Weber stated the audit will be complete when the Committee is satisfied.

Outside Walkways/Planting

Mrs. Cohen reported there is no update. Mr. Weber said he would contact the mayor regarding the outside walkways.

Strategic Plan – South Old Bridge

Mr. Weber announced a Strategic Plan outline was completed a few years ago. Mr. Weber asked Mrs. Cohen to e-mail him a copy of the latest outline. Mr. Weber suggested the outline be updated and kept as a rolling plan. Mr. Weber indicated the Library’s surplus should be used to improve services to Township residents.

HVAC

Mrs. Cohen announced she was informed Township won’t be moving forward until after their capital plan is approved in May.

Weekly Digital Showings

Mr. Weber asked if the noise was addressed in the large room. Mrs. Cohen indicated H.G. Clarke was able to reduce the noise from the fans. Mrs. Cohen indicated there will be a Beatles Tribute on Saturday. Mr. Weber suggested the Library provide a late bus for senior citizens who want to attend Library programs after the Senior Center is closed. Board members asked who would pay for the bus service. Mr. Weber indicated the Library would provide the funds for a late bus. Mrs. Cohen said she would contact the senior center to see if they would work with the Library regarding a late bus service. Mr. Weber indicated last month the combined usage of Kanopy and Qello downloads were reported as one. Mr. Weber suggested Kanopy and Qello statistics be reported separately.

Director’s Report

Book Drop

Mrs. Cohen reported 18 pickups have been made from the book drop for a total of 217 book returns. Mrs. Cohen indicated book donations have also been collected from the book drop. Mrs. Cohen informed the Board some audio books have been retrieved from the book drop which can be a problem as cases open and discs can be damaged. Mrs. Cohen indicated calls were made to the patrons who returned their audio books at the book drop and were asked to refrain from doing so. Mrs. Cohen said she will look into placing labels on the audio books stating they are not to be returned at the Amboy Bank book drop.
Carbon Monoxide Detectors

Mrs. Cohen announced the hardwired carbon monoxide detectors are scheduled to be installed next week. Mrs. Cohen indicated two battery operated detectors were installed at the Laurence Harbor Branch.

Library Link

Mrs. Cohen announced an analysis was done of the Library’s social media platforms through Library Link NJ. Mrs. Cohen indicated a lot of positive feedback as well as recommendations were received. Mrs. Cohen stated she would like the ability to do a single posting which would upload automatically to several social media platforms, rather than posting them individually. Mrs. Cohen informed the Board the Library will be doing a Library Behind the Scenes series starting with the Circulation Department with other departments to follow. Mrs. Cohen said the series will be posted on the Library’s Facebook page.

Mrs. Cohen indicated four nine-foot flags have been purchased for the 25th Building Anniversary of the Library. Mrs. Cohen indicated the flags will be used to start the advertisement of the upcoming celebration. Mrs. Cohen stated the Youth Services Department will have themed programs for the entire month for the 25th Anniversary. Mrs. Cohen reported the programs will start Friday, May 4, 2018 through Friday, May 25, 2018.

Mrs. Cohen announced the Library’s long time math tutor, Mark Leeper resigned his tutoring responsibilities a few weeks ago. Mrs. Cohen indicated she would like to issue Mr. Leeper a certificate of appreciation. The Board agreed. Dr. George added she would like to recognize the Braille Storytime volunteer.

Fines

Mr. Weber asked for a report with a breakdown by date and dollar. Mr. Weber asked to include the cost of the collection agency, and how much they have collected. Mr. Weber said he would like the report sent out a week or two before the May Board Meeting.

Acquisitions

Dr. George indicated the Acquisitions Supervisor reported van services are expanding. Mrs. Cohen reported the van will start making deliveries to the schools directly. Mr. Weber asked if there will be additional expenses. Mrs. Cohen explained the gas cost may increase, but nothing significant as the deliveries are once a month. Mrs. Cohen stated the plan is to bundle the schools together in a route. Dr. George asked Mrs. Cohen to send her the current van route.

Department Reports

Dr. George indicated minor details are not needed in the monthly department reports. Mr. Weber indicated he would like to see the extraordinary items highlighted.
Passports

Mr. Weber asked if the National Passport Center ever rejects a passport application. Mrs. Cohen indicated it’s very rare for a rejection to occur. Mr. Weber reported the Post Office is pushing their passport service. Dr. George suggested placing ads and noting the operating hours for passports.
